Bing Crosby's fondness for golf came through in this song he sang yearly at his clambake. The song has become the golfer's anthem. Enjoy!

Straight down the middle
It went straight down the middle
Then it started to hook just a wee wee bit
That's when my caddie lost sight of it
That little white pellet has never been found to this day
But it went straight down the middle like they say

Whack down the fairway
It went smack down the fairway
Then it started to slice just a smidge off line
It headed for two but it bounced off nine
My caddie says long as you're still in the state you're okay
Yes it went straight down the middle quite a ways

The sun was never brighter
The greens were never greener
And I was never keener to play
I heard it came down the middle
It went zing down the middle
Oh the life of a golfer is not all gloom
There's always the lies in the locker room
And I'm in my glory when wrapped in a towel I say
That it went straight down the middle today

Oh the life of a golfer is not all gloom
Though they charge just for listening in the locker room
But I'm in my glory when wrapped in a towel I say
That it went straight down the middle
Where it wound up is a riddle
But it went straight down the middle far away

With winter weather approaching, please be reminded that fragile bentgrass plants on the greens are endangered during frost conditions. Please never walk on a frost covered green! Air temperature, humidity, elevation, wind and sunlight all factor into how long a frost delay may last. We will always open the course as soon as it is safe to play. Thanks for your understanding.

I was lying ten and had a thirty-five foot putt. I whispered over my shoulder: "How does this one break and my caddie said, Who cares?" -Jack Lemmon
