Course Rules and Information

- U.S.G.A. Rules govern play.
- All players must register in the Golf Shop prior to play. Daily pin placements may be obtained in the Golf Shop or from the Starter. Yardage is measured to the center of the green.
- Proper pace of play is 4 hours, 20 minutes.
- Out of bounds defined by white stakes and paved streets.
- Wetlands are considered Lateral Water Hazards as defined by red stakes or lines. Drop a ball within two club lengths of the hazard, no nearer the hole, at the point the original ball last crossed the hazard, one stroke penalty. (Rule 26-1)
- Cart operators must have a valid driver's license.
- Carts must remain on paths unless otherwise noted on #1 tee. Carts must return to paths at red posts. Always keep carts on paths around tees, greens and all par threes. Do not drive carts on steep slopes.
- Please respect private property around the golf course.
- Proper golf attire includes collared golf shirts, spikeless golf shoes, and Bermuda length shorts. Each player must have their own set of clubs.
- Personal coolers and glass bottles are not permitted on the course or at the clubhouse.
- Please sand your divots, repair all ball marks and rake bunkers.
